

Two pairs of vertical bars, each pair consisting of two adjacent bars, are shown. The first pair is on the left, and the second pair is on the right. The bars are black and have a consistent height and width.

A group of three vertical bars, consisting of three adjacent bars, is shown. The bars are black and have a consistent height and width.

A group of five vertical bars, consisting of five adjacent bars, is shown. The bars are black and have a consistent height and width.

A group of three vertical bars, consisting of three adjacent bars, is shown. The bars are black and have a consistent height and width.

A group of three vertical bars, consisting of three adjacent bars, is shown. The bars are black and have a consistent height and width.

A group of three vertical bars, consisting of three adjacent bars, is shown. The bars are black and have a consistent height and width.

... ..

...

... ..

...

... ..

...

... ..

...

... ..